Framing contemporary art & culture

Aneta Bartos and Nick Weber

You have until February 28 to see the two-person exhibition from photographer Aneta Bartos and painter Nick Weber, curated by Anne Huntington and on view at AMH in New York. Modern Painters has long been a fan of Bartos's work (you might remember this slideshow from when she was in the erotically-charged "4 Sale" show.) The image above is her Window, 2010.
