4 Sale debuts the culmination of the year long creative union between Aneta Bartos, Elle Muliarchyk, Yana Toyber and Martynka Wawrzyniak. The imagery delves into universal mores and ideals all the while producing beautiful, conceptually strong and visually stimulating works. 4 Sale captures the essence of the dynamic nature within this collaboration curated by Anne Huntington. The works appropriate, suggest and formalize the collaboration within the full photographic body. Each artist conceptualizes unique realities within her framed vignettes, thus illustrating how each artist proclaims her unique voice, idea and story. The process evolves through openness, risk-taking, exploration and the incorporation of artistic and cultural influences. The fundamental nature of the works materializes organic and potentially controversial issues; issues that the artists keenly acknowledge and own. This acute awareness underscores the complexity of the project that liberates, provokes and creates a sense of union between these four talented artists of Eastern European descent.
